The following questions are designed to help groups explore the message above by challenging participants to consider how God is wanting them to apply it to their lives.

The questions are a guide to help lead discussion.

Please don't feel that all questions need to be asked, instead respond to the needs of your group.

If you have new people in your group, take the opportunity to introduce each other and clarify any expectations that are present in your group (such as confidentiality).

GETTING STARTED

1. Can you think of a time when you were craving what someone else had? What was that like?
2. What was the main challenge or idea that stood out to you from Sunday's message?

REFLECTING ON THE MESSAGE

Key Scriptures: Exodus 16:1-21, 35; Numbers 11:18-20, 31, 31-34; Luke 4:5-8

Read Exodus 16:1-12

1. Take the opportunity to read and remind yourselves of this Bible passage. What do you notice?
2. The Israelites were crying out to God for MORE in their cries for meat. How does their cry relate to Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, and us today?

Read Luke 4:5-8

3. When Jesus faced the second temptation it was around this temptation for MORE. How does He respond to this temptation? How does this relate to us?

Read Exodus 16:13-21

4. What truth about Himself is God revealing in these verses? What lessons can we learn?

RESPONDING TO THE MESSAGE

1. Are there aspects in your life where you have a craving for more than God has given you?
2. What would it look like to trust that God has given us enough instead?
3. How are you going to ensure that you can hold on to this truth?

OPPORTUNITY FOR PRAYER

Our Home Groups are the primary place for pastoral care to occur within the Church. We would encourage you to take the opportunity to pray for each other in this space.
