A LETTER TO THE COLOSSIANS

All that we need

Colossians 1:15-23

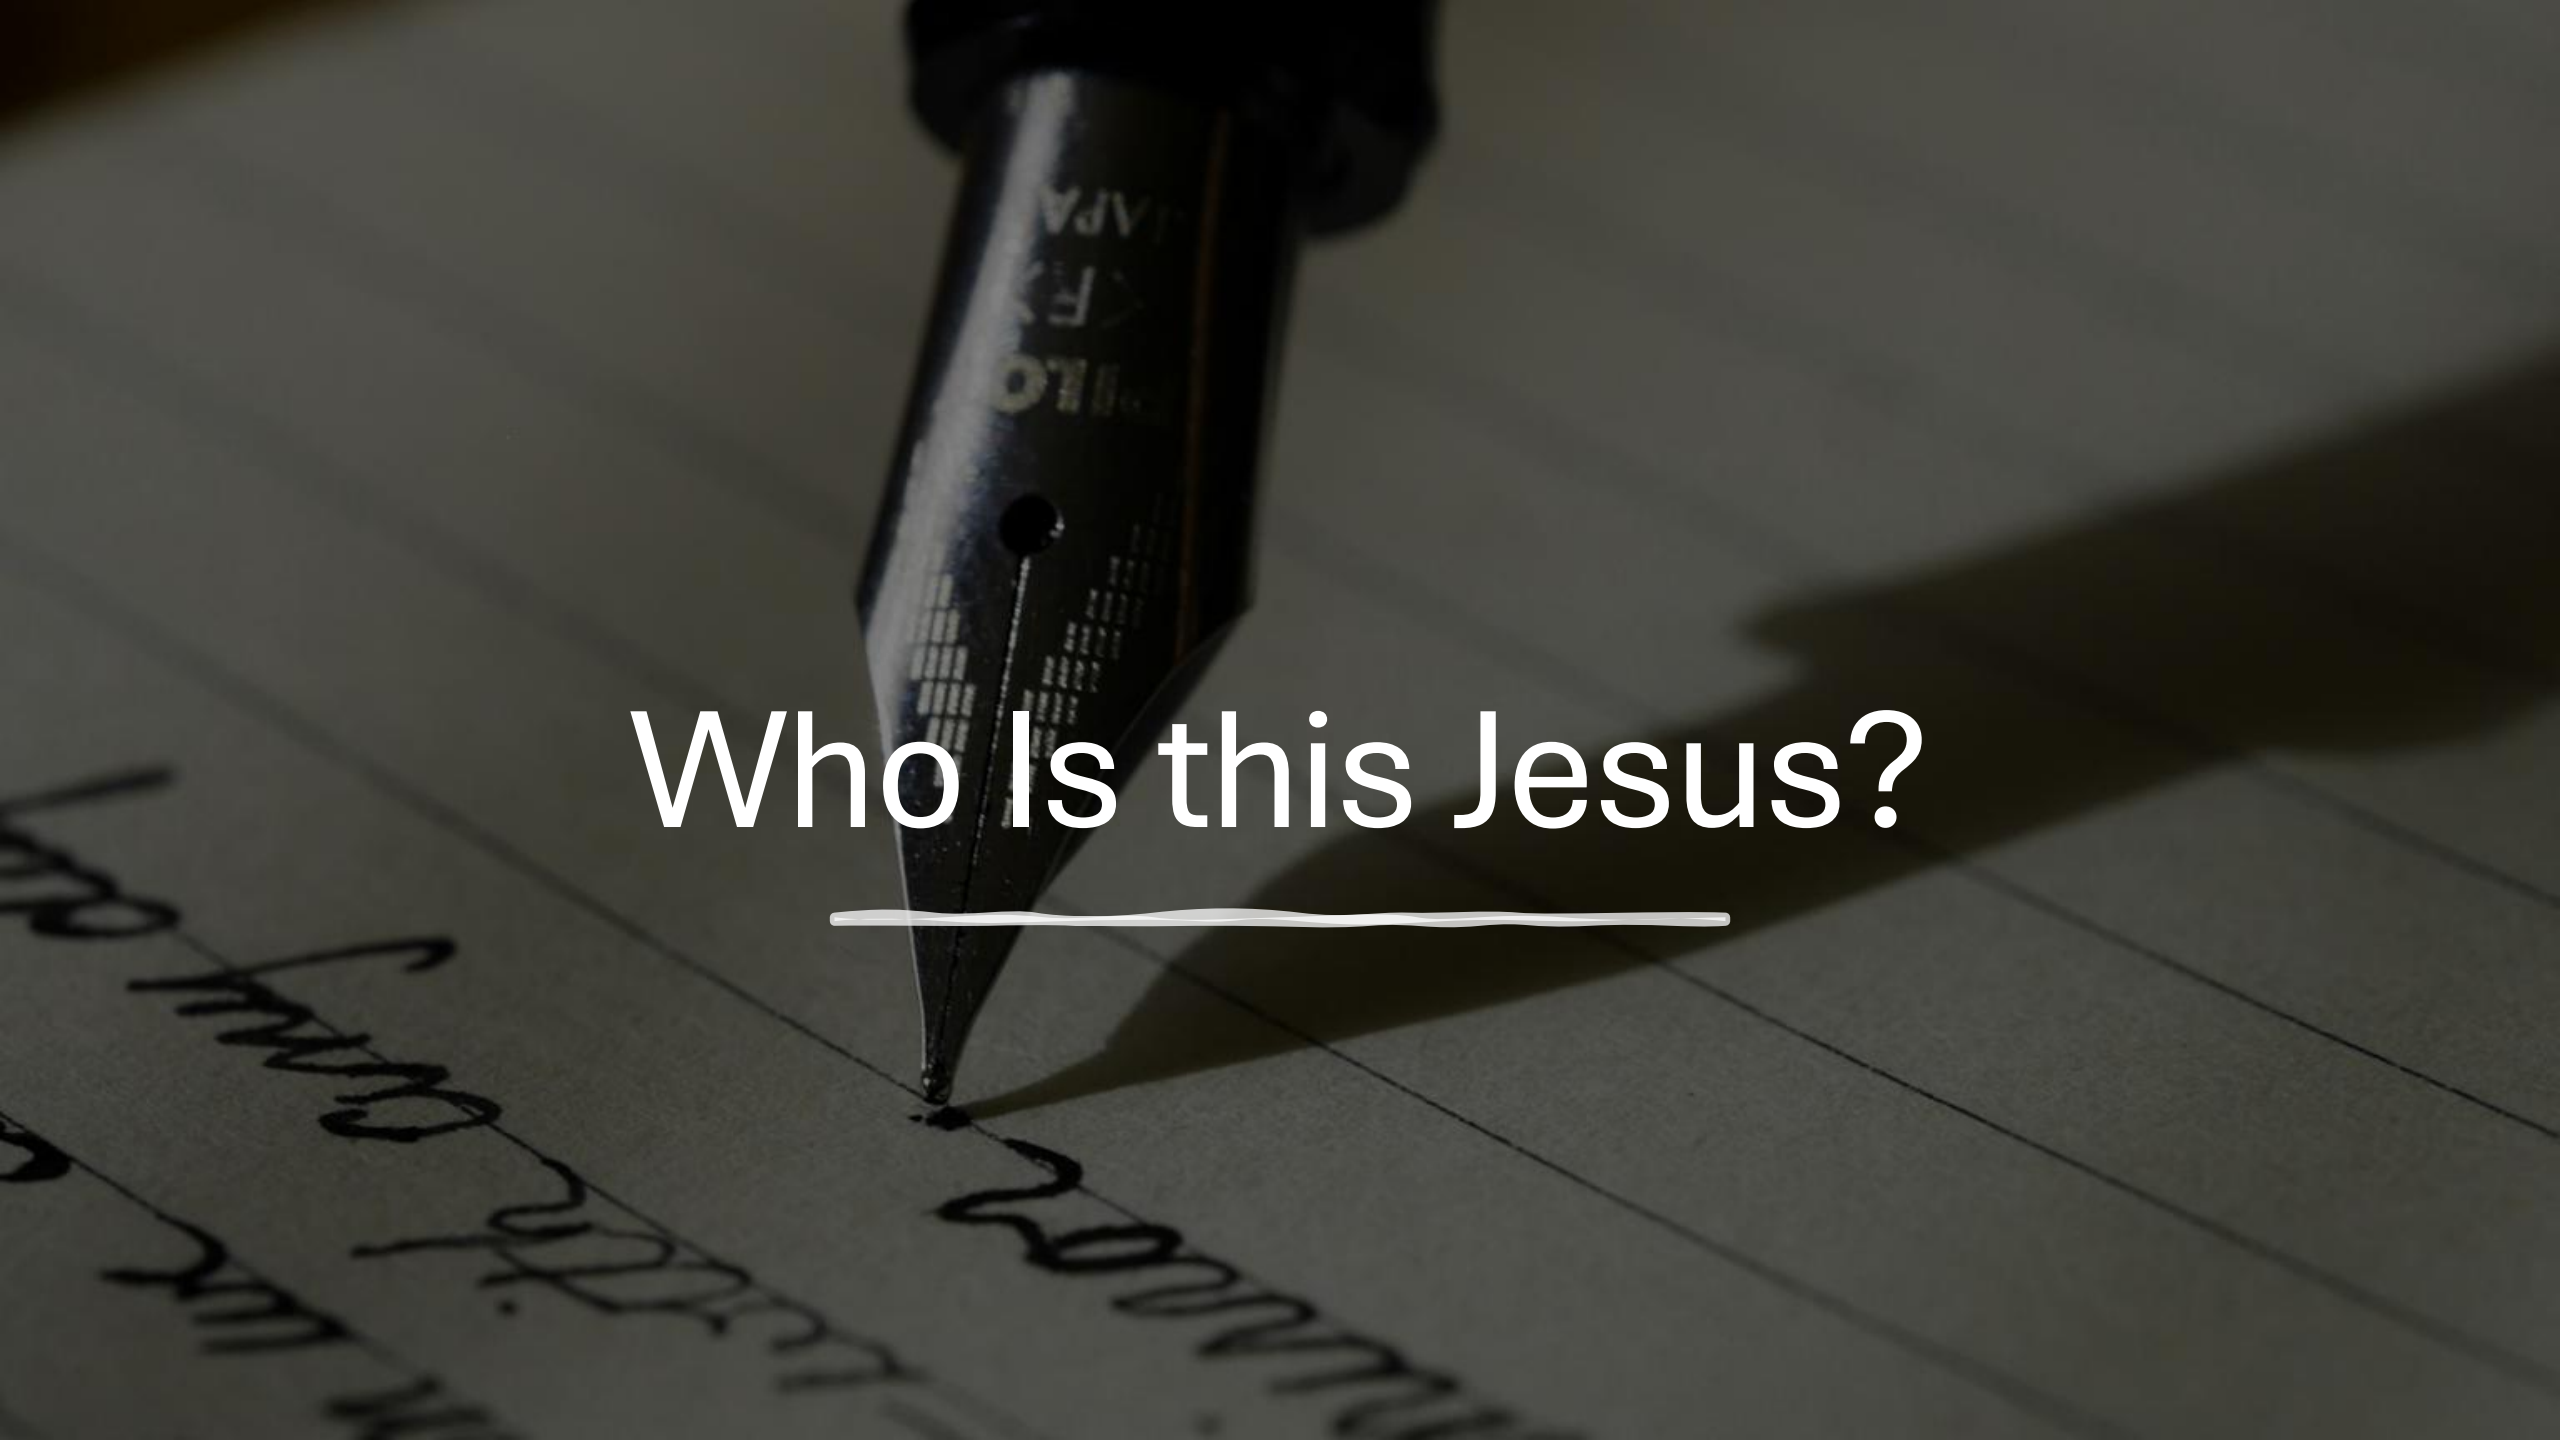

A close-up, high-contrast photograph of a fountain pen's nib writing on a document. The pen is dark, and the nib is positioned over a line of cursive handwriting. The background is a light-colored, textured surface. Overlaid on the center of the image is the text "Do I have What I Need?" in a large, white, sans-serif font. A thin, white horizontal line is drawn beneath the text.

Do I have What I Need?

¹⁵ The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. ¹⁸ And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. ¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him,

He Is Lord over all
Creation in Heaven and on Earth

What Has Jesus Done?

¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

²¹ Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. ²² But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation

What Has Jesus Done?

¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

²¹ Once you were alienated from God and were enemies in your minds because of your evil behavior. ²² But now he has reconciled you by Christ's physical body through death to present you holy in his sight, without blemish and free from accusation

A close-up photograph of a fountain pen writing on a document. The pen is dark with gold-colored accents and is positioned diagonally. The document has horizontal lines and some handwritten text in cursive. A dark, semi-transparent overlay covers the entire image, and the text "He Has Transformed Us and Given Us Peace" is written in white, sans-serif font across the center. A thin white horizontal line is positioned below the text.

A close-up, high-contrast photograph of a fountain pen's nib writing on a document. The pen is dark, and the nib is in sharp focus, creating a small pool of ink on the paper. The background is a dark, textured surface with a grid pattern, and the entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent dark layer. The text is written in a cursive script, with some words like 'further' and 'more' visible.

if you continue in your faith, established and firm, and do not move from the hope held out in the gospel. This is the gospel that you heard and that has been proclaimed to every creature under heaven, and of which I, Paul, have become a servant.
