On Mission Everyday

Acts 3:1-10

Challenging the Sacred/Secular Divide

The pervasive belief that some parts, places, and practices of life are important to God while others aren't.

ACTS 3:1-10

<sup>1</sup> One day Peter and John were going up to the temple at the time of prayer—at three in the afternoon. <sup>2</sup> Now a man who was lame from birth was being carried to the temple gate called Beautiful, where he was put every day to beg from those going into the temple courts.

<sup>3</sup> When he saw Peter and John about to enter, he asked them for money. <sup>4</sup> Peter looked straight at him, as did John. Then Peter said, “Look at us!” <sup>5</sup> So the man gave them his attention, expecting to get something from them.

ACTS 3:1-10

<sup>6</sup> Then Peter said, “Silver or gold I do not have, but what I do have I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk.” <sup>7</sup> Taking him by the right hand, he helped him up, and instantly the man’s feet and ankles became strong. <sup>8</sup> He jumped to his feet and began to walk. Then he went with them into the temple courts, walking and jumping, and praising God.

<sup>9</sup> When all the people saw him walking and praising God, <sup>10</sup> they recognized him as the same man who used to sit begging at the temple gate called Beautiful, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

“What does it look like to have on mission
as an everyday posture?”

A Simple Prayer

“Holy Spirit what do you want to bring to my attention today?”

ON MISSION EVERYDAY

On mission requires more attentiveness, not more availability.

“Look at us!” (Acts 3:4)*

ON MISSION EVERYDAY

On mission offers what we have, not what we wish we had.
